7) There is no doubt that this practice of applying for reduction in the sital value has become regular practice not only among the low paid officials of the Government but also officers/persons having income of Rs.500/- P.M. and above. To put a stop to such practice, a separate note is being submitted suggesting some modifications in the allotment rules.

8) However, these two officials may be shown the same concession which has been shown in other cases. The resolutions of the Board may perhaps be approved.
